++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Largely dry, bright and cold today.

Today:
After a very cold and frosty start it will be largely dry with bright or sunny spells throughout the day. However, the odd wintry shower is still possible, mainly in eastern coastal districts. Staying cold. Maximum temperature 4 deg C (39 deg F).

Tonight:
Any coastal wintry showers will soon fade to leave a largely dry night, with clear skies for most. It will be another cold night, with a fairly widespread frost. Minimum temperature -2 deg C (28 deg F).

Monday:
Another cold and frosty start for many, although it should be a largely dry day, with bright or sunny spells. Turning cloudier with some light rain and hill snow later. Maximum temperature 3 deg C (37 deg F).

Outlook for Tuesday to Thursday:
A spell of wet and windy weather moves northeast on Tuesday, with some hill snow. Rain and snow likely to persist on Wednesday and Thursday, with some significant accumulations possible.
